PREFACE

The genealogy here presented was mostly compiled in the years 1898 to 1903, with the encouragement of my brother James Draper Lazell, and would have been printed some thirty years ago but for his untimely death. Meanwhile another generation has come into being and most of those who co-operated in giving the information have gone to their reward. Their letters will be deposited with the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

Although it has not been practicable to bring the record strictly up to date yet it seems worth while that it should be preserved in permanent form and made available for future use. Such later facts as have come unsolicited have been included.

My thanks are hereby extended to all who have assisted in the work.

JOHN LAZELL OF HINGHAM, MASS., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By Theodore Studley Lazell, A.B., of Newton, Mass.

1. John Lazell (or Lassell),* of Hingham,† husbandman, probably born in England about 1620, died there 21 Oct. 1700. He married 29 Nov. 1649,‡ Elizabeth Gates, daughter of Stephen and Ann Gates, who came to New England with her parents on the ship Diligent in 1638 and died at Hingham 3 Aug. 1704.

John Lazell was a resident of Hingham as early as 1647, when he was about twenty-eight years of age. He was constable in 1677. He appears to have acquired the house lot and other grants of land made to Nicholas Hodsden, who had settled at Hingham about 1636 and had moved to that part of Kittery Maine, which is now South Berwick soon after his wife's death in 1647. These various parcels of land are described and bounded in the original volume of land grants and were situated in what is now called Hingham Centre, near Lazell Street, about a mile southwest from the railroad station. This property was held in the family for one hundred and eighty-five years, until his death, in 1832, of Hannah (Fearing) Lazell, widow of Samuel[4] Lazell (No. 18, vi). Since that date the surname has not been represented at Hingham.

Although no gravestone now remains to mark his burial place, one existed some years ago, as is shown by the following copy of the inscription found among the papers of the late Josiah[6] Lasell of Whitinsville: "Here lyes ye Body of John Lazell, aged 81 years. Died ye 21st. Oct. 1700."

His will, dated 2 Sept. 1695 and proved in Boston 11 Jan. 1700/1, is preserved in the Suffolk Registry of Probate. In it he named his wife Elizabeth, his eldest son Thomas, his sons Stephen, John, and Israel, his daughters Hannah Turner, Mary Burr, and Sarah Ripley, and three of his grandchildren, Joshua Lazell, son of his son Joshua, deceased, and Isaac and Abial Lazell, children of his son Isaac, deceased.

The inventory of his estate, taken 19 Dec. 1700 by Francis James and James Hawke, amounted to £251. 3s. It is preserved in the probate files, but was neither sworn to nor recorded.

Children, born at Hingham:

i. John,[5] bapt. 8 Sept. 1650; d. 14 May 1665.

*In the town records of Hingham this surname is spelled Lassell until 1669, and thereafter Lazell. In Rev. Peter Hobart's Journal the spelling is always Lazell.

†All places mentioned in this genealogy are situated within the present limits of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, unless another State or region is indicated in the text or may be easily inferred from the context.

‡This marriage, with this date, appears in Rev. Peter Hobart's Journal, fo. 12. In Lincoln's History of Hingham (vol. 2, p. 423), however, the year is misprinted as 1647.

A deed conveying his real estate to Joshua Lassell was drawn 30 Apr. 1729 and was signed eventually by Thomas Lassell, James Lassell, Barnabas Hatch, Abigail Hatch, Nathan Delano, and Ruth Delano. Unfortunately the heirs are not named in the granting clause of the deed, and, as the Delanos did not acknowledge their signatures until 15 Nov. 1738, it is possible that representatives of the four older daughters may have been overlooked.

Peter Hobart's Journal, "Joshua Lazell and Mary his wife were married the last week of January 1680/1." Her family name has not been found. She married secondly, before 30 Jan. 1694/5, Benajah Pratt of Plymouth, as is shown by a bond bearing that date preserved among the papers of the late Josiah[6] Lasell of Whitinsville, wherein her four children by her first husband are mentioned, the sons to have their father's land, and the daughters, Elizabeth and Martha, to have £6 each at the age of eighteen or at marriage.

ADDENDUM

JOHN LASELL OF PROVIDENCE, R. I., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

1. JOHN LASELL, of Providence, R. I., married (intention recorded in Boston 10 Nov. 1774) REBECCA HAWS. His relationship to the family that forms the subject of the preceding genealogy has not been established. He may, however, have been the son of John and Susanna (Adlington) Lasdell of Boston.*

In 1775 "Mr. John Lassell" was employed as the postrider between Providence and New London, Conn. (Rhode Island Colonial Records, vol. 7, p. 367). In December 1776 he received £24. 15s. 10d. for 2¾ loads of hay supplied by him for the use of General Lincoln's baggage team (ib., vol. 8, p. 111).

His children probably included the following:

i. REBECCA, b. at Providence 3 Nov. 1780; d. at Beach Pond, Wayne Co., Pa., in 1865; m. at Providence, 13 Apr. 1802, OTIS DRAKE. Ten children, for whom see the Drake genealogy.

2. ii. JAMES, b. at Providence 3 Apr. 1788.

3. iii. JOHN.

iv. DEBORAH, "daughter of John," b. in 1794; d. at Providence 11 July 1825, in her 31st year (Rhode Island Vital Records, vol. 12, p. 553).

He may have been the father of John Lasell of Providence, R. I.
